11/28/11 Exams started today. Look at this weather, man. What's up with this...? It's really weird. Have you ever heard of anything like this before? Oh, yeah, and finals start today. But that's seriously not the point now. What's going to happen? I'm worried, too. I thought that stuff about the fog being harmful to people was just a rumor, but people are getting sick. And even besides that, there have been a lot of weird rumors spread around, too. Damn... I don't like how any of this feels. Yosuke's definitely right, something's deeply wrong here. Anyway, exams are just as easy as last time. 11/29/11 Another day, another boring exam. Also man, they slipped some obscure shit onto these. 11/30/11 The situation in town continues to get worse. Sporty Student: Argh, there's no way we can keep the club going like this. Too many of our members are calling in sick. When is this damn fog gonna clear up!? Younger Student: But, Senpai, the people who are just slacking off aren't showing up either, right? You can keep the club with the members you're left with. Maybe the fog helped you find out who's the most dedicated to being in the club! Sporty Student: Huh? Well, that's one way of looking at it, I guess. And seriously, Mrs. Nakayama put that on her exam. 12/1/11 I can't believe it's already December. 12/2/11 Okay, this is just bad, Girl With Bag: Hey, did you hear what they say happened on the Midnight Channel!? Someone said they watched it, and there was a picture of this town in complete ruins! Bespectacled Girl: Huh? My friend said that she saw Inaba get swallowed by the fog and sent into some other dimension! She said there were monsters coming out of the fog, too! Like in that story... Girl With Bag: Have you noticed...? Ever since this fog started... It seems that some people can see the Midnight Channel even when it's not raining... Could it be... Is our town getting more and more messed up!? What the hell does that even mean? None of this is making sense anymore. What WAS the Midnight Channel anyway? 12/3/11 Where should I start? God. We all ran into each other in the fog this morning. VIDEO- "Realization" Click Here For Video! The weather report said it might start snowing soon, but what's going to happen if it snows with all this fog? Whoa, where'd you guys come from!? Wow... That's quite a crowd you got there. We ran into each other back there, so we came together. The fog's so thick that sometimes you can't see your nose in front of your face, so everyone's forming groups now. It's definitely been weird lately. It's so cold, too... Visibility's so bad, it's scary... Can I stick close to you, Senpai? *sigh * This girl never changes... It really is hard to see anything in this, though. It's just like on the other side. That gave Kanji an idea, which led to a terrible realization for us. > When you put your glasses on, your vision becomes much clearer... Whoa... It's all clear... Wh-What the hell is going on!? These glasses are meant to help us see through the fog in the other world... But putting that aside, no glasses would improve one's visibility in a fog, under normal circumstances. Then, umm... Could the fog from over there be leaking into our world...? Huh? Y-You guys think that's it!? I-I was kinda expecting you to ignore it as Chie being random again... I-It's just a thought... Haha... > The mood darkens... Anyways... today's the last day of exams, right? Let's get 'em over with so we can meet up at the special headquarters after school. Wow... We haven't used that name in a while... We did still have some exams, but they're a joke as always. > You answered every question with ease... > > The answers seem to be flowing from your hand! Then we went to Junes to talk about the case. We had a newspaper to read. VIDEO- "Junes" Click Here For Video! "Some specialists are raising concerns that this fog may consist harmful substances..." "More and more citizens are calling for an investigation into the cause of the fog and the facts about it..." "Thought the government has begun its preliminary investigation, many feel that the causes will be hard to pinpoint..." "Huh... Is this fog really dangerous? You hardly ever see people walkin' around town anymore..." Or here, either. Everyone's too scared of the fog now to go outdoors much. It does seem a lot like the fog on the other side... But beyond that, I'm clueless. There's another item of note here... A summary of Namatame's career, with details about the case. "...The suspect was having an affair with the first victim. It seems she was killed due to relationship troubles." "Also in April, Ms. Saki Konishi's body was discovered. The police are looking into a motive for the murder." "In July, a boy living in Inaba performed a copycat murder." "The boy was initially thought to be the culprit behind all the killings, but later suspicion was thrown upon Namatame." "Last month, the suspect attempted to kidnap a seven-year-old girl of Inaba, resulting in his arrest..." I have to say that was already bothering me. I mean the best they can do is guess he killed Yamano due to relationship problems? That's all they've got? So it's finally over. A lot of stuff's happened... But all that's left is for the police to build a case for Namatame, right? Can they prove anything? I'm sure your uncle can... But... the stuff he was saying was so obviously nuts. If he says anything about the TV world, he might be considered mentally unstable... Also, I heard before that if the police don't have enough hard evidence, it's difficult to build a case. Yes... There are many such cases and culprits. It's the eternal conundrum for crime investigators... So even if they're caught... the law can't do shit? ...It's a possibility. Hell's up with that!? We all know he did it... You can't just let a maniac who thinks he's saving people by killing them run wild on the streets! They better not dismiss something this serious because of some mental issues... Saki-senpai... No... Not just her, or that announcer... Even King Moron is his fault. If it weren't for what he did, nobody would've tried a copycat killing. It's his fault Nanako-chan's in the hospital right now, too... That reminded me of the promise I'd made to Nanako before Namatame kidnapped her. What's the matter? > You told the others about your promise with Nanako... A kotatsu...? Oh, then why don't we go check them out right now? I know Nanako-chan would be psyched if she came home and found a new kotatsu! Dude, why didn't you tell me sooner? The winter season's coming up, and we just got a bunch of 'em in stock! Alright, off to the housewares section! For Nanako-chan! They had some really nice ones. It's a cliché because it's true, dammit. The best complement to a kotatsu would be a heated rug. Dude, that much juice would kill the breaker the moment you tried to microwave something. Oh yeah, you've never used a kotatsu before, huh Ted? It's nice and toasty. Can I still stay here...? You kept your promise to me... So I should be going back... But I don't want to go until Nana-chan gets better. Of course you can stay. How many times do we have to say this before it gets through to you? Nanako-chan would be sad if you weren't there when she wakes up. B-But... I couldn't save Nana-chan... Don't be silly. We saved her together. We caught the killer, man. We couldn'ta done that without you. Teddie, you shouldn't talk that way when Nanako-chan is still fighting. You guys... Teddie keeps talking like he's going away. It's worrying... Sensei... I'm so touched! I'll stay by your side until Nanako-chan comes home, Sensei! Oh, that's right... There's no one but you at your place. Hey, why don't we pick out a Christmas present for Nanako-chan while we're at it? Oh, that's a great idea! I'm sure she'll be out of the hospital by then. Alright, but none of this "charge it to Yosuke" stuff this time. Seriously. We're clear on this, right? Aw come on, why would we do something like that? Dude, the clothes you got for this guy? I almost pissed my pants when I saw the receipt! How many days you think I had to work to pay that off!? Well, I can't help it if Junes overcharges for things. Urgh...! Well, I guess you gotta expect that... It's not like Chie-san's ever had the occasion to help a guy shop before. Wha--!? What did you just say!? C'mon, baby. Don't fight over me... Stay outta this! Snrk... Heeheeheehee... Let's leave them be and think of a present for Nanako-chan on our own. But what would a girl her age want...? What do you think Nanako-chan would appreciate most? I decided we couldn't go wrong with Jack Frost. Yeah, that white, round shape's the best. A plush doll's the way to go! All right, as soon as Nanako-chan's out of the hospital, we'll have a party at your place! Yess! And we'll bake the cake! Of course! Let's make it a cake to remember. Oh no you're not! Are you trying to send Nanako-chan back to the hospital? And that's when life decided to start shitting all over us. Adachi called. Hello? This is Adachi. Um, I want you to stay calm and listen to me, okay? Nanako-chan's condition suddenly got worse... The doctor wants you to come to the hospital immediately... We'll be waiting. C-C'mon, let's go! We rushed down to the hospital as fast as we could get there. We even had to push past some of those goddamn gas mask crazies. VIDEO- "The End" If You Watch No Other Video Ever Click Here For Video! > Dojima is listening to an explanation from the doctor... > There have been loud voices throughout the hospital for some time now... Woman's Voice: Doctor, this fog is poisonous, isn't it? Isn't it filled with viruses? They said so on TV! Isn't there a vaccine or something for it!? Nurse's Voice: Calm down, please. That's just a rumor... Man's Voice: Don't tell me to calm down! You're lying! We know you have medicine for this! Are you just going to stand there and watch us die!? Nurse's Voice: What would we do something like that!? What a commotion... What the hell's that supposed to mean!? Can't you see how much pain she's in!? Doctor: All we can do right now is monitor her condition closely. Dojima-san, you need to return to your- I don't give a damn about myself! Do something about Nanako- Ngh... Dojima-san! Just save her... For god's sake, please save Nanako... Doctor: ...We'll do our best. I must ask you to step outside for the time being. Nanako... We couldn't do anything but stand around outside Nanako's room. Everyone else was so upset, I don't know. Seeing them like that just made me even more certain I had to keep my head in the game, no matter what happened. This all has to do with the world you came from! Can't you figure something out!? I'm thinking... I'm thinking, but... Dammit! Why does this have to happen to a little girl like her...!? Calm down. How'm I supposed to stay calm at a time like this!? Can't believe this is happening... Nanako-chan's gonna be okay... right? You guys still here? How is Dojima-san doing? His wound's opened up again. They're treating it over in his room now. Any luck with your investigation of Namatame...? Either Adachi's just a retard or he's intentionally fucking with us. I'm not goddamn sure but it's just bullshit all the stuff he comes out and says. I won't mince words here... We're gonna have a hard time making these charges stick. What's that mean? I talked with the guys at the station, and it'll be next to impossible to find him guilty in court. Especially given the reason why we took him off our list of suspects for the first case... Oh yeah... something about him having an alibi... Yeah, that. And the whole angle about him putting people into TVs... There's no way that'll stand up in court. No one would believe that... What the public wants is when, where, and how Namatame killed these people. And Dojima-san knows it... Well, ain't you calm about this. I'm just telling you the truth. And you call yourself a cop!? Huh!? If you wanna see that stuff so bad, we'll show you! Hurry up and bring a TV here, dammit! Hey, stop- What the...? The nurse ran out... Nurse: Hurry inside! Please talk to her! What the hell...? What's going on!? No... Nanako-chan... Nanako looked weaker than ever. He'll be here soon. Doctor: Nanako-chan... Nanako-chan. Can you hear us? Do you understand what we're saying? Your big brother's here with you. Just hang in there. ...Ngh... Doctor: Where's Dojima-san!? Nurse: We're calling for him right now! Outside... But Dojima... Doctor: Big... bro... I'm right here. Mm... I'm... scared... Big... bro... Dad...dy... He didn't make it. Nanako! Nanako...? Doctor: I'm sorry, Sir... No...! Dammit... DAMMIT!! Nana-chan...
